ESCANABA – The U.P State Fairgrounds will be the host of Cars, Coffee and Carnival Cuisine.

On Friday, May.29th and Saturday, May.30th from 11 a.m. – 7 p.m, people can visit the fairgrounds for food from vendors such as Brisket Barn, Mata's Fund Foods, and more.

The public will be asked to follow CDC guidelines, such as social distancing and wearing a mask. Sanitation stations will also be set up around the area.

"We know that so many people are ready to have some delicious fair food," said Shella Krueger, Associate Director at the Delta County Chamber of Commerce. "They've been in their house a little bit more frequently and ready for some elephant ears and corn dogs. We were happy to see a little bit of the restrictions lifted in the Upper Peninsula, which obviously has allowed us to have carry-out service with the food and our vendors are going to be on the midway and ready to serve our local community."

Parking and admission into the fairgrounds is free, and viewing of classic cars will begin at 8 a.m. on Saturday.

For additional information, visit the UP State Fairgrounds website.

Cathy,

Northern Michigan University and the 2020 Marquette Marathon organizing group are moving forward with planning for race weekend, while remaining flexible to make any necessary changes as more guidance becomes available from local and state public health and safety officials.

Attached is our filled out special event application and a map showing the course through Ishpeming.

NMU risk and insurance manager Andy Zerbel is copied on this email and will be sending a certificate of insurance as we get closer to July 1 and the university's new fiscal year.

Our priority will remain the health and well-being of participants, volunteers and community members. Please let me know if you have any questions or if I can provide any additional information.

With best regards,
Forrest
